June 25, 2013

Dear Karatekas,

As chairman of the Canada JKA Karate Federation (CJKF), I am delighted to announce that our 11th Annual Koyo Camp will be held in Newmarket, Ontario from October 25 to 27, 2013. The camp will feature three unique programs running in parallel:

- an Instructor's Program,
- a Power Seminar, and
- a Regular Seminar.

This year, we plan to welcome back one of JKA's most respected instructors: Master Tanaka. He will lead the Instructor's Program, teaching dojo instructors and senior students with ranks of Sandan and higher how to be keepers of Shotokan karate's traditional teachings. The program will be limited to 50 participants who will gain the technical insights they need to master fundamental movements and share their knowledge with others.

The Power seminar is a physically intense and technically challenging program geared to competitors and others who wish to improve their speed, strength, timing and artistic expression. The seminar will be limited to a maximum of 40 brown and black belts who are committed to maintaining a rigorous training pace. In particular, people who aspire to earn a spot on Canada's national team would be amiss not to enroll in the program and seize the opportunity to elevate the caliber of their karate in advance of the official selection tournament in November. Others are welcome to register as well. However, please note that senior CJKF instructors may deny some students' applications to participate should they feel the individuals will be better served in one of the other programs.

Led by Sensei Saeki and other senior CJKF instructors, the Regular Seminar is open to black, brown and colour belts and will focus on basic techniques, kata and kumite. Specifically for kata:

- black belts will focus on Gojushiho Dai and Hangetsu;
- brown belts will focus on Bassai Dai and Kanku Dai; and
- colour belts will focus on the Heian katas.

The registration deadline for the Regular Seminar is September 30, 2013.

The deadline for enrollment in the Instructor's program and Power seminar is August 31, 2013. That said, students are encouraged to secure a spot via the camp registration form and fee as soon as possible, as a maximum of 40 to 50 students (depending on the program) will be admitted on a first come, first served basis. (Note that only students who register for all sessions of the program will be eligible to participate.)

Finally, please note that this year's camp will not include Dan or qualification examinations. If you have any questions about the 2013 Koyo Camp or other upcoming events, please send an email to ottawajka@rogers.com.

We eagerly look forward to seeing you at Koyo Camp. We encourage your students, and all JKA members, to participate and celebrate with us the high standard of Shotokan karate here in Canada.

Sincerely,

Roy Chin Fee
Chairman
